

Cargill and NEI Global Relocation Company (NEI) would like to provide you with a starting point in your search for temporary accommodations. Below is a list of possible housing options and is reviewed by NEI annually. You can review at your convenience. This is to aid you in your search efforts. Cargill and NEI cannot guarantee availability and are not recommending or endorsing any of the options provided within this page. You are encouraged to satisfy your own financial and safety requirements when researching places to live. Estimated cost notations ($) are based on average costs assuming roommate availability. The NEI Cities destination research tool within your NEI Global Gateway can be used to supplement your research. It leverages vast sources of information, including crowd-sourced reviews and an interactive map.

Your stipend is intended to subsidize but not cover housing expenses during your internship.
